

OUSTED FROM CHURCH.

Rev. I. B. Trout, of Lanark, Ill. Accused of Indiscretions.

Harrisonburg, Va., March 31.—Rev. I. B. Trout, a prominent Dunkard minister, professor, lecturer and author, who was an instructor in the Bible Institute last January in Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Rockingham county, and who has conducted revivals in various valley counties in recent years, has been ousted from the Brethren Church at Lanark, Illinois, and at the same time divested of all his offices in that denomination. He is charged with indiscretion while visiting the red-light sections of Chicago engaged in gathering material for his new book, "The Chicago Underworld."

In his search for color in the segregated districts of Chicago his sympathy was aroused by a beautiful young girl, a victim of the underworld, whom he undertook to "rescue" and use as a sociological study. It is said that the "study" accepted gowns, hats, shoes, gloves and lingerie from Elder Trout and later fled from her generous benefactor.

It is a remarkable coincidence that two of the minister's flock happened to be slumming themselves on a certain occasion. The meeting of the three brothers proved to be a genuine surprise party. The story leaked out and the undoing of Elder Trout was the result.

Elder Trout says that he has nothing to conceal; he feels that his congregation will vindicate him in due time; he is proud of being able to help the unfortunate underworld victim; his wife is standing by him, he says; and that he is certain of the righteousness of his cause and his ultimate vindication.

$7,000 A NIGHT.

Argentinas Will Pay Caruso This Record Salary.

New York, March 31.—Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, has received a cablegram from Enrico Caruso in Monte Carlo stating that the famous tenor has been engaged for ten appearances late in May at the Buenos Ayres Opera House, Argentina, at a salary of 35,000 francs ($7,000) a night.

This is said to be the largest individual paid any artist of his profession and makes Caruso the highest paid singer in the world. He receives $2,500 an appearance at the Metropolitan.

HEAD-ON CRASH.

Charlotte, N. C., March 31.—Southern Railway passenger train No. 8, was in head-on collision with a freight train at Coddle Creek, twenty miles north of here, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. T. V. Williams, of Charlotte, and two negro trainmen were slightly injured. The train crews escaped by jumping. The collision occurred on one of the few single track stretches of the Southern between this city and Washington.

Children Die in Fire

Des Moines, Iowa, March 31.—Rose and Forrest O'Brien, aged ten and nine, respectively were incinerated and their mother, Mrs. Charles O'Brien, fatally burned in a fire which destroyed the O'Brien home here.

The children burned to death as they slept. The mother was burned trying to save them. Police believe the fire may have been of incendiary origin.

NORFOLK LICENSE LAW.

Committee Will Recommend Material Increases for Some Branches of Business.

Norfolk, Va., March 31.—Several increases in license taxes were decided on by the members of the finance committee of the council at its meeting Monday night in a session devoted to considering the present license ordinances. One of the largest increases decided upon was in the tax on the manufacturers and bottlers of pop, ginger ale and kindred drinks. This was raised from $50 to $100 a year. One section of these ordinances was amended so as to tax at $15 a month dance halls where admission is charged or a charge made for dancing. Heretofore these places have not been assessed. The part of the ordinance regulating the tax on merchants according to the amount of the purchases in a business year was changed so as to increase the tax paid by those buying more than $100,000 worth of goods after the $100,000 mark has been reached. The limit of $500,000 worth of purchases was cut out, making the sky the limit, as one member of the committee expressed it. This will give a return of $625 for the half-million dollar merchant, instead of $500 as at present.

SEE BOY KILLED BY AUTO.

Attorney Runs Down Youth And Broken Phone Pole Falls Into Car.

Rocky Mount, N. C., March 31.—His legs broken, skull crushed and arms shattered before the automobile of Attorney A. D. McLean, of Washington, Ernest Taylor, 7 year old son of William Taylor, received fatal injuries Sunday afternoon in Martin county when the automobile was swung from its path, crashed into a telephone pole which was broken off and fell with force into the automobile, inflicting slight injury to one of the lady passengers.

The accident, which occurred at a late hour in the afternoon at a point on the Williamston-Washington road about four miles from Williamston in Martin county, was witnessed by the parents of the youth, who was entangled under the car and suffered injuries from which he died within six hours.

According to those present the youth dashed out from his father's automobile, which had stopped in front of home, while a small boy had started to open the gate and it was when he ran from behind the halted car to the opposite side of the road that the great oncoming machine was upon him before anyone hardly knew of its presence.

Following the accident it is declared Mr. McLean picked up the injured child in his arms and rushed into the house with him and that prominent physicians from both Williamtown and Washington were summoned.

"CROSSED T'S WITH KISSES."

Hempstead, L. I., March 31.—The letters of Warren A. Brown, aged 50 years, a bachelor and a wealthy real estate broker, to Mrs. Myra B. St. John, in which he "crossed the t's with kisses," figure in a $10,000 suit brought by Joseph C. St. John in which he alleges that Brown alienated his wife's affections.

The St. Johns were married in 1907 and have four children. Several months ago Mrs. St. John obtained a separation and $5 allowance. She is said to have admitted that she signed an affidavit saying that Brown had held hands with her and had sent her letters containing kisses and expressing the wish that he might marry her.

WOMAN'S HORRIBLE STORY.

Used Axe, Ice Pick And Knife on Her Husband.

New York, March 31.—A new page of horror was written into police annals yesterday, when Mrs. Thomas Prechipoch confessed that she murdered her husband, whose mangled body was found on March 22, huddled in a closet of his tenement in the Bronx.

Her confession reveals a crime unequalled for ferocity and cold calculation. The woman is said to have admitted that she not only beat her husband with an axe, but that she drove an ice pick into his body several times, and then cut his throat with a butcher knife to "end his suffering."

According to the report of the confession, Mrs. Prechipoch said she waited until her husband was asleep in bed, then she took a short-handled axe and beat in his head, afterward sticking an ice pick into him several times.

"He groaned a lot," said the woman, "so I stuck some rags in his mouth and dragged him to the closet and pushed him in, but he seemed to be making faces of pain, so I thought I might as well end his suffering. I got my butcher knife and showed his head back and cut his neck, so he could die quick."

Then Mrs. Prechipoch, according to her confession, washed off the axe, the knife and the ice pick and cleaned up the stains on the bed. When this task was completed she packed two suit cases, one of which she took with her to College Point, where she joined Michael Kasir. On Sunday morning before the body was found she returned to the tenement, obtained the other suitcase, after peering in and making sure her husband's body was still there, and went back to Kasir.

Last Friday the police arrested Hurdiska and Mrs. Prechipoch, holding them as material witnesses. The woman told conflicting stories, and yesterday, it is claimed, sent for Acting Capt. Hingy, and said she wanted to clear up all "the mess" about her husband.
